Dear Gary,

What Cheuse wrote about Schiller buying the KBG was particularly helpful and I thank you for it. I've already used it in what I've written. Knowing his method of operation I began with that belief. I believe the whole thing was rather costly to him. If you see any more on the costs I'll appreciate it.

I've heard not a word about getting any more books and I continue to hear that over a wide area the stores do not even know of NEVER AGAIN! I'd been under the impression that the early signs were good.

Mary wrote me that she phoned seven stores she deals with and none had it or knew of it. One is special ordering for her and she had to order three to get them to get one for her!

I'm sending her the index.

I've not taken any time for it or for reading the book. I'm putting all the time I can in writing and the amount on paper is accumulating. But I've been told that there are mistakes in it. ^(the index) It was not proofread after being set in type. It was not in the proofs sent to me. A friend told me that fairly soon it is off by a page and then is off by two pages. He is a professor and he uses the index as he reads. I do not remember how far into it he was but I think it was halfway or more. So please when you can alert others to this.

Mary sounds better.

If you did nothing to get her to deed her records to The Sixth Floor and want them I've just encouraged her again that ^{he} ~~way~~ ^{must be} an encourage you to get it on paper if you want it.

Best,

Someone interested in the subject of the enclosed was here and did searching I can no longer do. I believe I sent you the full record of which I enclose a few pages on what I'd always believed from when I first got these records but in the ^{process} ~~event~~ I did not I send ~~that~~ that refer to the air-taping.
